CNRS membership supports the multi-disciplinary study of maritime, marine and naval subjects in and about Canada. Members receive:

- ☛ The Northern Mariner/Le Marin du nord, a quarterly refereed journal dedicated to publishing research and writing about all aspects of maritime history of the North Atlantic, Arctic and North Pacific Oceans. It publishes book reviews, articles and research notes on merchant shipping, navies, maritime labour, nautical archaeology and maritime societies.
- ☛ Argonauta, a quarterly newsletter, which publishes articles, opinions, news and information about maritime history and fellow members.
- ☛ An Annual General Meeting and Conference located in maritime-minded locations across Canada such as Halifax, Vancouver, Hamilton, Churchill and Quebec City.
- ☛ Affiliation with the International Commission of Maritime History (ICMH).

Membership is by calendar year and is an exceptional value at $65 for individuals, $20 for students, or $90 for institutions. Please add $10 for international postage and handling. Members of the North American Society for Oceanic History (NASOH) may subscribe to Argonauta, the newsletter, for $30 per year. Individuals or groups interested in furthering the work of the CNRS may wish to take one of several other categories of membership. Each of these memberships includes all the benefits of belonging to the Society. CNRS is a registered charity and all donations to the society are automatically acknowledged with a tax-receipt.
